In 2009 the Texas Legislature amended Chapter 41.A of the Texas Tax Code. The Tax Code mandates that arbitrators complete a 30 Hour Educational Course in arbitration to be an arbitrator on the State of Texas Comptrollers Registry of Arbitrators. Chapter 41.A also states that the arbitrator must renew their application with the Comptroller when their license expires or every two years, which ever is first. In 2009 one of the amended changes to Chapter 41.A requires that an arbitrator must complete 8 hours of continuing education in arbitration over that 2 year period. This course will satisfy that required 8 hour continuing education requirement by teaching advanced arbitration skills to arbitrators who are real estate agents and brokers.
