

Beyond The Law

TREC # 04-00-121-8680 4 Hrs MCE

When representing property owners and tenants or buyers, licensees must conduct business in compliance with laws such as the TRELTA and the Rules of TREC that set the minimum standard. The REALTOR® Code of Ethics may challenge REALTORS® to a higher standard of moral conduct in many instances.

As a result of participation in this course, the student will be able to clearly identify the standard of professional conduct required of all licensees by statutory provisions and TREC rules affecting brokerage activities.

The participant will be able to identify parallel topics of moral behavior addressed by the REALTOR® Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice embraced by REALTORS®.

Through carefully constructed interactive classroom activities, the participant will be able to identify potential problem areas, identify frequently violated laws and rules, and explain penalties for violations of law and infractions under the Code of Ethics.
